Dear Ladies and Gentlemen

We are excited about the upcoming collaboration with your company!

The enclosed contract documents are essential for our cooperation, with the request for the company signature and return of a complete set as soon as possible:

- I. Logistics agreement
- II. Distribution agreement for trade logistics
- III. Storage agreement for establishing inventory management
- IV. and the terms of Daily Service.

General instructions and merchandise insurance:

Daily Service is a logistics service provider and not a food distributor. Until the distribution agreement is signed, we are compelled to report your trade turnovers to the credit insurer. The resulting premium will be passed on to you. These premiums cover the liability limits specified by the default insurer, but these are not 100% of the value of the goods. Any difference in the event of damage will be at your expense.

Daily Service opened an additional logistics location in Himberg. The assortment is allocated approximately 55% Asten and 45% Himberg (excluding regional focus assortments).

For any questions, we are available at the telephone number +43 7224 67391-87.

Kind regards

DAILY Service GmbH
